Publications:

A sequence of four articles on Boolean Algebra, (in Hebrew) Gilyonot Mathematica, The Israeli Association of Mathematics, (1960-1961).

"Lattice matrices," Information and Control, 7 (4), pp. 477-484 (1964).

"Transparent categories and categories of transition systems," The 1965 IEEE Conference Record on Switching, Circuit Theory and Logical Design, pp. 235-241 (1965).

"Transparent categories and categories of transition systems," The Proceeding to the Conference on Categorical Algebra, La Jolla, 1965, (S. Eilenberg et al, Eds.) pp. 317-330, Springer-Verlag, New York (1966).

"Categories of semimodules: the categorical structural properties of transition Systems," Journal of Mathematical Systems Theory, 1(1), pp. 67-78 (1967).

"On some properties of the free monoids with applications to automata theory," Journal of Computer and System Sciences, 1(2), pp. 137-154 (1967).

"Algebra automata I: parallel programming as a prolegomenon to the categorical approach," (jointly with M. A. Arbib,) Information & Control, 12(4), pp. 331-345 (1968).

"Algebra automata II: the categorical framework for dynamic analysis," (jointly with M. A. Arbib,) Information & Control, 12(4), pp. 346-370 (1968).

"A categorical review of algebra automata and systems theories," Symposia Mathematica, IV, Academic Press, London (1970).

"Algebraic structures in linear systems theory," (jointly with Y. Zalcstein,) Journal of Computer and System Sciences, 4(6), pp. 539-556 (1970).

"Algebraic theory of m-ary systems," Theory of Machines and Computation (Z. Kochavy, Ed.,) Academic Press, London (1971).

"Foundations of an operational philosophy," (in Hebrew) Iyyun, The Israeli Journal of Philosophy, 24(1), pp. 289-293 (1973).

"Nouns and verbs in LOGO and in other programming languages," (in Hebrew) Proceedings of the 2-nd Conference on Computer Applications in Instruction and Learning of the Israeli Association of Computers in Education, Tel Aviv, pp. 167-177 (1985).

"Characteristic dimensions of programming languages," (in Hebrew) Meydaon, The Israeli Journal for Information on EDP 6(33-34), pp. 141-146 (1985).

"Computer literacy - why bother ?!" (in Hebrew) Hed Hachinooch, (the Israeli Teacher Union Journal,) 60(1), pp. 6-13 (1985).

"Computer literacy - why bother ?!" (in Hebrew - an invited republication of the above) Ma'aseh Choshev, (the Journal of the Information Processing Association of Israel), 13(1), pp. 40-47 (1986).

A running series of articles on the features of LOGO as a computing tool for mathematics and computer science education (25 articles, in Hebrew), Zav leZav, published by the Israeli Center for LOGO Applications, (1986-1993).

"Computer applications in education - dimensions and consequences," (in Hebrew) Dappim, (the journal of the teacher training division of the Israeli Ministry of Education,) 5, pp. 5-16 (1987).

"Computers in special education - wherefrom and whereto?" (in Hebrew) in Hachinooch Hamyoochad, (the journal of the special education division of the Israeli Ministry of Education,) 32, pp. 6-22 (1987).

Thinking Adventures in LOGO, (in Hebrew) a booklet on the applications of LOGO in mathematical inquiry learning, BUG Publishers, Tel Aviv, Israel (1987).

"The computer as a tool for activating groups of pupils," (jointly with G. Alexander,) (in Hebrew) in Proceedings of the 5-th Conference on Computer Applications to Instruction and Learning, of the Israeli Association of Computers in Education, Tel Aviv, (1988).

"To be acquainted with the computer or to understand it?!" (in Hebrew) Hed Hachinooch, (the Israeli Teacher Union Journal,) 63(4), pp. 6-8 (1988).

"Taxonomy of educational software applications," in Proceedings of the 5-th International Conference On Technology And Education, The University of Edinburgh, Edinburgh, Scotland, (1988).

"Teaching recursive program composition in procedural environments," Machine-Mediated Learning, 3(2), pp. 125-145 (1989).

"Programming in LOGO as a mathematical activity," Proceedings of the Fourth International Conference for Logo and Mathematical Education, 2-5 July 1989, Kibbutz Ramat Rachel, pp. 232-242.

"Recursion, a didactical dilemma: procedural versus functional," Proceedings of the Second European Logo Conference 1989, 30 Aug - 1 Sept, Gent, Belgium, (1989).

"Is recursion well defined?" Computers & Education, 14(1), pp. 35-41, (1990).

"A microworld of Escher tessellations," (jointly with R. Haddass and N. Movshovitz-Hadar) (in Hebrew) in Proceedings of the 6-th Conference on Computer Applications to Instruction and Learning, of the Israeli Association of Computers in Education, Tel Aviv, (1990).

"The cognitive challenge involved in Escher's potato stamp microworld," (jointly with R. Haddass and N. Movshovitz-Hadar) Proceedings of The 14-th International Conference of PME 1990, Mexico (1990).

"Teaching recursive programming using parallel multi-turtle graphics," Computers & Education, 6(3), pp. 267-280 (1991).

- "The role & positioning of LOGO in educational informatics," Proceedings of The Third European Logo Conference, Parma, Italy, pp. 331-342 (1991).
- "What do computers do in education?" (in Hebrew) Hed Hachinooch, (the Israeli Teacher Union Journal,) 76(1), pp. 4-6 (1991).
- "Escher's potato stamps: a microworld programming project," (jointly with N. Movshovitz-Hadar and R. Haddass) Logo Exchange, 10(3), pp. 37-41 (1992).
- "Infinitely long streams in LOGO," EUROLOGOS, Vol. 1, pp. 17-19 (1992).
- "Training software uses in teaching - trends and directions," (in Hebrew, jointly with D. Miilin) People and Computers, supplement on Education, March 1993, pp. 9-13 (1993).
- "Pedagogical centres and computer centres: a view towards the future," (in Hebrew, jointly with Y. Bar-Kol and M. Margalit) Computers in Education, No. 25, pp. 35-37, (1993).
- "The literacy of letters facing the literacy of bits," (in Hebrew) Written Thoughts, 7/8, The MeLeL Centre, Beit Berl College (1993).
- "Catch infinity by its tail: infinite sequences in LOGO, revisited," Proceedings of the Fourth European Logo Conference, University of Athens, Department of Informatics, 28-31 August 1993, Athens, Greece, pp. 137-143, (1993).
- "The advancement of the computing culture in Beit Berl College: A Summary Project Report 1994," (in Hebrew, jointly with E. Benzaquen, A. Feller, R. Shtatfeld and N. Tene), the Center for Informatics, Beit Berl College (1994).
- "Combining databases in writing," (in Hebrew, jointly with R. Shtatfeld), (in Hebrew) Written Thoughts, 10/11, The MeLeL Centre, Beit Berl College (1994).
- "The web of literacies: an outline of a pluralistic view of literacy," (in Hebrew), Helkat Lashon, 19-20, pp.6-23 (1995).
- The Culture of the Computer: Observations and Issues, (a booklet in Hebrew, with Benzaquen E.), The Center for Informatics, Beit Berl College (1995).
- "The characterization of the open tools," (in Hebrew) in The Computer in School, (Hativa, N. and Mvarech, Z., Ed.) pp. 39-59. Tel Aviv: Schoken Publishing House Ltd.(1996).
- "Concerning the academic use of databases from the point of view of conventional literacy," (in Hebrew) Chelkat Lashon, 22, pp. 41-63 (1996).
- "Towards a methodology of didactic system analysis for the purpose of defining possibilities of merging the use of digital open tools in learning activities" (in Hebrew – on line) www.tau.ac.il/~ktltau/maslool/sindex.html (1996).
- "The cultural reason for using LOGO as a programming language for learning, based on a proper redefinition of modern literacy," Proceedings of the sixth European LOGO conference, Budapest, Hungary, 20-23 August (1997) (also on line: caesar.elte.hu/~eurologo/lectures/shafee.htm).
- "Literacy as data processing," in Information and communication Technology Changing Schools and Teacher Education (edited by R. Schulz-Zander). No. 7, pp. 41-50. Dortmund: IFS-Verlag (1998).
- "Information technology and teacher education: the missing link," Proceedings of SITE 99, the tenth international conference of SITE, San Antonio, Texas, February 28 – March 4, pp. 171-175 (1999).
- "Literacy, since its inception, has been an interaction between Man and Technology" (in Hebrew) Script, Vol. 1, 1. pp. 107-126 (1999).

"The power of writing," (in Hebrew, with Valden, Z.), Dvar Hama'ase, pp. 186-196. Moshav Kadima: "Reches" Publishers. (2000).

"The computer in school: a Trojan horse or an elephant in a chinaware store?" (in Hebrew), Computers and Fun. April 2000, Issue No. 100, pp. 24-28 (2000).

"ICT Literacy and teachers," (in Hebrew), Computers and Fun. June 2000, Issue No. 102, pp. 22-26 (2000).

"From databases to learning," (in Hebrew, with Rimor, R.) Script, Vol. 1, 2. pp. 45-75 (2001).

"Internet Literacy and parents," (in Hebrew). Haforum, 17, May 2001, pp. 23-26 (2001).

Introduction to Educational Informatics, with Benzaqen E.(a book in Hebrew, 190 pp.), Hod Hasharon: Mabat Lachalonot (2001).

"The function of the digital texts in learning and teaching environments," Golshim Beqesher 14, pp. 4-7 (2004)

"Operational Literacy: The study of objective operations in the use of texts during the performance of Literacy activities," (in Hebrew). Script 7-8, pp. 39-60 (2004).
